

Daniel & Revelation End-time Prophecies Sermon Series
Study #55: All The World Wonders After The Beast
Revelation 13:3 - 4
Bible Sermon Study Notes by Cary Rodgers, pastor

In our previous study we examined the link between the leopard-like beast described in Revelation 13 and the little-horn as described in Daniel chapters 7 and 8. Their characters and prophecies perfectly complement each other. They both represent the same political and religious kingdom of Papal Rome that ruled from 538 to 1798 AD as prophesied in the book of Daniel and Revelation. Papal Rome was the fifth kingdom since Babylon.

We also learned that the beast in Revelation 13 is a summarized composite of all four beasts of Daniel chapter 7 in character: the lion, bear, leopard, and dreadful beast with 10 horns. These four kingdoms are the four kingdoms that were before Papal Rome: Babylon, Media-Persia, Greece, and Roman Empires. Remember, the beast of Revelation chapter 13 was strikingly similar, it has a lion's mouth, bear's feet, a leopard's body, and 10 horns. Papal Rome took the pagan and false religious worship of all four kingdoms before it and put a false Christian garment over it.

The seven heads on the beast represent the seven earthly kingdoms since Babylon that had a direct impact on the people of God; they all persecuted the faithful people of God. (Babylon, Media-Persia, Greece, Rome, Papal Rome I, USSR (atheism) and Papal Rome II.)

What do the ten horns and crowns represent on the beast?

Revelation 17:12

12 And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast.

The ten horns with ten crowns are ten kings (kingdoms / nations) at the very end of time will receive power as kings for "one hour" with the beast, Papal Rome. The length of time is given as "one hour". One hour is prophetic time, day for a year principle, because of its symbolic context. One of hour of a day is 1/24. Do the math? 1 divided by 24 = 0.0416 days. 1 year = 360 days. 360 days x 0.0416 days = 15 days. Or simply, 360 / 24 = 15 days

In other words, 10 nations will rule with Papal Rome at the end of time for only 15 literal days. We will study this in more detail when we get to Revelation 17.

The Bible reveals that Papal Rome is a false religious and political system that Satan set up and empowers. Revelation 13:2 makes it very plain, "the dragon, Satan, gave him (Papal Rome) his power, and his seat, and great authority. Remember, the red dragon in Revelation 12 also has seven heads and 10 horns. Satan is the master mind of Papal Rome. It does not matter how Papal Rome presents itself to the world, the whole system is controlled by Satan. Papal Rome is a human agent of the Devil and his demons.

On the seven heads that describe Papal Rome is the name blasphemy according Revelation 13:1. Papal Rome from the beginning as described in Daniel and Revelation has been a very blasphemous system. They claim the role and positions that only belong to God. They claim to have the power to forgive and cleanse others from sins. They wear the garments of Christianity and Christ, but their actions and doctrines grossly misrepresent the character of God. They are one of the most blasphemous political and religious systems on this planet!

What prediction does Revelation 13 say about the leopard like beast, Papal Rome at the end of time?

Revelation 13:3-4

3 And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered (greatly admire) after the beast.

4 And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him?

Remember, from 538 to 1798 Papal Rome was the fifth empire since Babylon. Daniel prophesied the Papal Rome would deceitfully take power over the Pagan Roman Empire. Papal Rome as the fifth empire ruled mainly the European world and parts of northern Africa. At that time they did not rule the “whole world”.

Revelation 13:3, 4 predicts that Papal Rome, whose head was wounded to death as the fifth empire, will be healed and have power over the entire world as the seventh kingdom. Our previous studies in Daniel chapters 11 and 12 also describe this healing wound of Papal Rome as the seventh kingdom.

We must pay great attention to this prophecy. It reveals that the beast, Papal Rome, will strike back with world dominance this time. It predicts that “all the world” will wonder after Papal Rome! In Revelation 13:4, it also predicts that ALL who wonder after the beast will be a worshiper of Papal Rome and Satan, the one is the evil master mind behind the beast!

Verse 4 also predicts that the world is so mesmerized by Papal Rome, that they proclaim “who is like unto the beast.” In other words, they are saying that there is no one or system that is as great as the beast.

They also proclaim that “Who is able to make war with him.” In other words, they are saying that Papal Rome, the beast, is about “peace” and not war and that no one should protest or make war against it.

Only those who are spiritually blind, not watching and praying, could miss the direct fulfillment of this prophecy revealed in Revelation 13:3,4

Remember, the Papal Roman Empire in the past mainly covered modern day Europe. The prophecy reveals that the new Papal Roman Empire would include the entire world. It would be given a new lease on life, “his deadly wound” would be healed.

Does Papal Rome exist today in our modern times? What kind of power and influence does it have?

Let's look at the facts. In 1798 it appeared that Papal Rome was dead. It appeared that it would never have its monarchical power back. Another blow happened when its capital of Rome was overtaken by Italian forces in 1870 including Papal Rome's beloved Vatican City, except the Apostolic Palace, the home of the papacy. Over the next 59 years the papacy refused to leave the Apostolic Palace in Vatican and declared itself “a prisoner in Vatican.”

As the prophecy says Papal Rome was “wounded to death.” From all appearances they would be like other empires who lost their dominance like Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece, and Rome, never to come back. How could Papal Rome come back into world dominance after being “a prisoner in Vatican” living under the shadows of Italy? Is this even possible? Remember again, Bible prophecy is extremely accurate. Let's continue to study.

What happened in 1929 that began “healing” the wound of Papal Rome?

As you can imagine since 1870 Papal Rome worked with persistence to get its governmental sovereignty back. In 1929, the papacy negotiated a treaty with the government of Italy and its dictator Benito Mussolini known as the Lateran Treaty, also called the Lateran Pact. This treaty gave Papal Rome its monarchical governmental sovereignty back within the territory of Vatican, approximately 109 acres. The treaty also recognizes that the Catholic religion is the only official religion within the government of Papal Rome.

It is interesting to note that after the Lateran Treaty was signed the San Francisco Chronicle, February 12, 1929, wrote an article entitled "MUSSOLINI AND GASPARRI SIGN HISTORIC ROMAN PACT." In part of the article it speaks about "healing the wound" of Papal Rome:

"The Roman question tonight was a thing of the past and the Vatican was at peace with Italy. The formal accomplishment of this today was the exchange of signatures in the historic Palace of St. John Lateran by two noteworthy plenipotentiaries, Cardinal Gasparri for Pope Pius XI and Premier Mussolini for King Victor Emmanuel III.

In affixing the autographs to the memorable document, healing the wound which has festered since 1870, extreme cordiality was displayed on both sides." - The San Francisco Chronicle, February 12, 1929, p. 1
Did the San Francisco Chronicle know about the Bible prophecy of Revelation chapter 13? Not sure, but it is quite interesting that they would use those words that points to the "healing" of the wound of Papal Rome. Even though Papal Rome's "wound" was not completely healed in 1929 it surely started the healing process.

What is the status of Papal Rome since 1929?

Today, Papal Rome's headquarters of the Catholic Church is still in Vatican. It is a religious governmental monarch on 109 acres surrounded by Rome, Italy. The Pope is both the leader of the church and sovereign leader of the Papal government also known as the Holy See. In other words, he is the "king". He is both priest and absolute king. It is still the smallest nation on earth, but as the prophecy predicts it has worldwide power and influence.

Quick Facts:

1. Vatican is Papal Rome's Headquarters
2. 109 Acres (surrounded by Rome, Italy)
3. Vatican's population is approximately 1,000 citizens
4. Pope is sovereign leader or king
5. Pope is religious head of an estimate 1.2 billion Catholics worldwide

The papacy's power and influence to "shape men's minds" worldwide has grown very much since 1929 into the modern 21st tech century. Remember, according to Revelation's prophecy the beast, Papal Rome, will once again have an empire, but this time it will cover the entire globe. It will be the head of the seventh empire, the last earthly kingdom.

How can a small nation rise to world power as prophesied?

The answer is found in its organizational system. Ellen White, who has written much on this subject in her classic book entitled, The Great Controversy says, "The Roman Catholic Church, with all its ramifications throughout the world, forms one vast organization under the control, and designed to serve the interests, of the papal see. Its millions of communicants, in every country of the globe, are instructed to hold themselves as bound in allegiance to the pope. Whatever their nationality or their government, they are to regard the authority of the church as above all other. Though they may take the oath pledging their loyalty to the state, yet back of this lies the vow of obedience to Rome, absolving them from every pledge inimical to her interests. History testifies of her artful and persistent efforts to insinuate herself into the affairs of the nations; and having gained a foothold, to further her own aims, even at the ruin of princes and people." - Ellen White, Great Controversy, p. 580

How much has Papal Rome healed since 1929? Is Papal Rome fulfilling prophecy of being the last worldly empire on this Earth with the pope as king?

Since 1929 until the present time, the papacy has been very intentional in creating formal governmental relationships and diplomacy worldwide. Over the years the papacy has been a key negotiator and diplomat at United Nations. Its most prized diplomatic relationship and direct political influence has been the United States of America, a world superpower after War World II.

The current cozy relationship between the United States of America and the papacy would be shocking and appalling to many immigrants from the “old world,” Europe, who escaped the religious persecution of Papal Rome to the “new world,” America. They risked their lives to protest against the atrocities and errors of the papacy. The word “Protestant” refers to individuals and churches that oppose or “protest” the doctrines and influence of the papacy in all its forms.

When the founders established the United States of America, it was based on Christian Protestant principles without the influence of the papacy. They saw Papal Rome as a danger to their religious freedom and the American way of life. John Adams, Second President of the United States, sums up the America’s thoughts of Papal Rome, “I have long been decided in opinion that a free government and the Roman Catholic religion can never exist together in any nation or Country.” - John Adams to Thomas Jefferson, December 3, 1813. Cappon, Adams-Jefferson Letters, 2: p. 571. Adams continues, “Liberty and Popery cannot live together.” - John Adam to Louisa Catherine Adams, May 17, 1821, Adams Papers (microfilm), reel 451, Library of Congress.

General Marquis de LaFayette (1757-1834) who served in the American Continental Army concurs with Adams, “It is my opinion that if the liberties of this country – the United States of America – are destroyed, it will be by the subtlety of the Roman Catholic Jesuit priests, for they are the most crafty, dangerous enemies to civil and religious liberty. They have instigated most of the wars of Europe.” - James Chapman, Americanism Vs. Romanism, Or The CIS-Atlantic Battle Between Sam & Pope, p. 127.

The Jesuits

To combat the Protestant principles of true religious freedom in America, Papal Rome deployed its most feared, diabolical, secretive, insidious, corrupt, ruthless, and murderous order of the Catholic church, the Jesuits, also known as the Society of Jesus. The order was founded in 1534 by Ignatius Loyola as a specialized “army” of priests to combat the Protestant Reformation. In general, a Jesuit will become whoever it needs to be in order to accomplish their goal. Not many years after America was established, the Jesuits covered themselves in Protestant “robes”. For example they became Baptist or Methodist students, teachers, preachers, and administrators, secretly inserting the papacy’s principles and errors. They successfully created schools in America that attracted even Protestant students. They established their first American Jesuit University in the heart of the nation’s capital, Georgetown University. Overtime the Jesuits were successful in infiltrating American politics, government, schools, and religious denominations.

Ellen White, who also researched and wrote about the Jesuits stated, “When appearing as members of their order [Jesuits], they wore a garb of sanctity, visiting prisons and hospitals, ministering to the sick and the poor, professing to have renounced the world, and bearing the sacred name of Jesus, who went about doing good. But under this blameless exterior the most criminal and deadly purposes were often concealed. It was a fundamental principle of the order that the end justifies the means. By this code, lying, theft, perjury, assassination, were not only pardonable but commendable, when they served the interests of the church. Under various disguises the Jesuits worked their way into offices of state, climbing up to be the counselors of kings, and shaping the policy of nations. They became servants to act as spies upon their masters. They established colleges for the sons of princes and nobles, and schools for the common people; and the children of Protestant parents were drawn into an observance of popish rites. All the outward pomp and display of the Romish worship was brought to bear to confuse the mind and dazzle and captivate the imagination, and thus the liberty for which the fathers had toiled and bled was betrayed by the sons. The Jesuits rapidly spread themselves over Europe, and wherever they went, there followed a revival of popery.” - Ellen White, Great Controversy p. 235

“There was no crime too great for them to commit, no deception too base for them to practice, no disguise too difficult for them to assume. Vowed to perpetual poverty and humility, it was their studied aim to secure wealth and power, to be devoted to the overthrow of Protestantism, and the re-establishment of the papal supremacy.” - Ibid, p. 234

By the time Abraham Lincoln became the 16th president of the United States, he could see the stealthy moves of Papal Rome and its future influences on America. He said, “I do not pretend to be a prophet; but though not a prophet, I see a very dark cloud on our horizon, and that cloud is coming from Rome. It is filled with tears of blood. The true motive power is secreted behind the thick walls of the Vatican, the colleges and schools of the Jesuits the convents of the nuns and the confessional boxes of Rome.” - Charles Chiniquy, Fifty Years in the Church of Rome, p. 115

U.S. Presidents and Papal Rome

Even though the Jesuits and Papal Rome were successful in setting up institutions in the U.S., American presidents resisted Papal Rome politically and kept a great distance away from the pope. However, in 1919 that all changed when President Woodrow Wilson became the first U.S. President to visit Pope Benedict XV in Vatican on January 4, 1919. Forty years after the first U.S. president's visit with the pope, the visits became more frequent. On December 6, 1959, President Dwight Eisenhower met with Pope John XXIII in Vatican. On July 2, 1963, the first Roman Catholic President John F. Kennedy met with Pope Paul VI in Vatican. On October 4, 1965, Pope Paul VI was the first pope ever to be allowed to set foot on American soil to meet with President Lyndon B. Johnson in New York City. On December 23, 1967, President Lyndon Johnson met with Pope Paul VI for the second time in Vatican becoming the first U.S. president to meet with the pope twice.

Matter of fact, every single U.S. president since Eisenhower to our current day has met with the pope, multiple times in many cases. On October 6, 1979, Pope John Paul II met President Jimmy Carter in the White House. Pope John Paul II was the first pope to meet with the President of the United States in the White House.

By the 1980's Papal Rome and the United States had formed a very engaging and comfortable relationship with each other. In 1984 President Ronald Reagan was the first U.S. president to establish a formal diplomatic relationship with the papacy when he officially appointed a U.S. Ambassador to Papal Rome. As a result of the bond that the U.S. has formed with the Vatican, both President Reagan and John Paul II are credited with the fall of the communist world superpower, Union of Soviet Socialist Republics (USSR).

Over the last fifty years the United States and the papacy have developed a strong diplomatic and political relationship. On September 24, 2015, there was another major first time event. Pope Francis was the first pope ever to publicly address U.S. Congress lawmakers. This influence that the papacy now has on America's lawmakers was the “dark cloud” that Abraham Lincoln referred to that will be filled with “tears of blood,” persecution.

This formal relationship with a world superpower and host of the United Nations General Assembly in New York City has opened up many doors to the papacy worldwide. The four popes over the last fifty years have spoken to the United Nations General Assembly. Pope Paul VI made an address to the UN in 1965. Pope John Paul II spoke twice, once in 1979 and again on the 50th anniversary of the UN in 1995. Pope Benedict addressed UN in 2008. Twenty years after Pope John Paul II spoke at UN's 50th anniversary, Pope Francis spoke to many attentive ears at the UN General Assembly on their 70th anniversary on September 25, 2015. At that time it was the largest gathering of presidents and world leaders ever at the United Nations General Assembly to hear a pope speak.

Even though the papacy never applied to be a member of the UN, they were granted permanent observer status on April 6, 1964. “In that capacity, it has the right to attend all sessions of the United Nations General Assembly, the United Nations Security Council, and the United Nations Economic and Social Council to observe their work. Accordingly, the Holy See has established permanent observer missions in New York and in Geneva and has been able to influence the decisions and recommendations of the United Nations.” - en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Holy_See_and_the_United_Nations

The papacy currently has the power to “influence decisions and recommendations” worldwide. The pope has personally met with many heads of nations over the last 50 years. Leaders and lawmakers from around the world have kissed the ring of the pope. Papal Rome has gained popularity worldwide as a star, key diplomatic negotiator, and peace maker. In our modern times popular popes such as John Paul II and Francis have been on the cover of several magazines and even listed as the person of the year. In 2004, U.S. President George W. Bush presented John Paul II with United States' highest civilian honor, the President Medal of Freedom.

When John Paul II died in 2005, his funeral attracted the largest gathering of the heads of state in history! History records four kings, five queens, at least seventy presidents and prime ministers, and more than fourteen religious leaders from around the world (en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Pope_John_Paul_II#Criticism). Three former U.S. Presidents who were in attendance, George Bush, Sr., George W. Bush, and Bill Clinton along with Secretary of State, Condoleezza Rice, were pictured together kneeling in worship before the dead body of John Paul II. Is the world “wondering” or “admiring” after the beast as predicted in the Bible? Is the wounded head healed?

Pope Francis has broken attendance records in many places around the world that he has visited. He has been called, “The people’s pope,” “A new world pope,” and “Pope for a new world.” Did you know that Pope Francis was the first Jesuit pope in the papacy history? Do you think that is by chance or design?

The world media outlets are picking up on the clues that the papacy wants to lead the world both spiritually and politically. On September 15, 2015 just prior to Pope Francis’ historic visit to the United States, Time magazine had a picture of him on its cover holding up a golden monstrance used for mass with the title “New Roman Empire: The global reach of Pope Francis.” Just a few hours after Pope Francis spoke to the U.S. Congress, Howard Fineman, Global Editorial Director of the Huffington Post, wrote an article entitled, “Pope Francis Wants To Be The President Of The World.” Does Fineman know about the prophecies of Revelation chapters 13 and 14? Not sure, but it is interesting to note what he writes about Pope Francis’ first visit to the U.S.

Here are a few quotes from that article:

“But shrewdly, methodically and with a showman’s flair, the soft-spoken, 78-year-old Argentinian Jesuit priest named Jorge Mario Bergoglio - Pope Francis - showed Thursday that he is running to become president of the planet. He did so in a congressional ceremony of secular civic pomp in a massive legislative building that, after all, harks back to ancient Rome. As devout as he is, and as focused on the faith and practice of the Catholic Church, Francis is also campaigning to lead public, secular, political discourse worldwide...The pope wants to win that battle, and Washington was one more stop on the campaign tour.” - Howard Fineman, Pope Wants To Be President Of The World, September 24, 2015, Huffington Post (www.huffingtonpost.com/entry/pope-francis-world-leader_us_56041e79e4b00310edfa4d0f)

The prediction of Revelation 13:3, 4 is on point and fast fulfilling! All these things that are currently transpiring in our world today are not by chance. Jesus is soon to come. Are you ready?

The head that was wounded to death is almost completely healed! It is not by chance that in 2017 the head of the United Nations is a devout Roman Catholic, António Guterres. Guterres has very close ties to Vatican and the pope.

Fulfilled: All the world governments are wondering after the Beast!

In 2016 Papal Rome directly influenced the Paris Agreement, a one world government disguised as an world agreement to deal with “climate change.” We studied this in detail in Daniel 12 study. All the world has signed this treaty. Remember most of the nations of the world signed this treaty on April 22, 2016, on Passover, a memorial of God’s covenant. Since then ALL the nations of the world have signed the Paris Agreement. The world rejected the covenant of God, and believes the false covenant of the Papacy. The Paris Agreement went into force November 4, 2016. There is no other treaty like it in the world in which ALL the world has signed it. Papal Rome has worldwide political power. All the major nations of the world welcome the papacy and have a submissive relationship to Vatican. They see the papacy as a moral superpower that can bring in world peace.

Fulfilled: All the world religions are wondering after the Beast!

United major religions around the world

Not only does the papacy have political power world wide but they also have religious power worldwide.

The papacy has done what no other, government or religion has ever done, unite ALL the major religions around the world into one large brotherhood which includes all major Christian religions, former protestants, evangelicals, Buddhism, Hinduism, Jews, and Muslims.

Vatican's Ecumenical Movement

From 1962 to 1965 Papal Rome held a council with church officials that met periodically during the three years known as The Second Vatican Ecumenical Council, also known as Vatican II. The purpose of this council was how to address "relations between the Catholic Church and the modern world." - Wikipedia (en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Second_Vatican_Council). The main purpose of the council was to plan and create strategic methods on how to reach out to other religions and beliefs around the world. They wanted other religions to unite with them in purpose.

At the opening of the first session in 1962 Pope Paul XXIII said, "What is needed at the present time is a new enthusiasm, a new joy and serenity of mind in the unreserved acceptance by all of the entire Christian faith, without forfeiting that accuracy and precision in its presentation which characterized the proceedings of the Council of Trent and the First Vatican Council." - Ibid

In the second session in 1963, Pope Paul VI stressed that the council needs to "restore unity among all Christians, including seeking pardon for Catholic contributions to separation; and to start a dialogue with the contemporary world." - Ibid. The implementation of the approved strategies from Vatican II gave rise to the modern ecumenical movement between Protestants, Catholics, and other religions. The word "ecumenical" means "universal, pertaining to the whole Christian church" worldwide. - Dictionary.com

The main purpose of the Ecumenical Movement led by the papacy is to unite the Christian churches and other religions together on issues of mutual concern. They are to put away all belief and doctrinal differences and unify on things that they care about together. They are to be united as one big world-wide family. On the surface that appears to be a notable cause, but understanding prophecy and history, underneath the surface of their agenda is the plan of Satan to join the world together for Papal supremacy which will be used by Satan to destroy as the "abomination that maketh desolate"(Daniel 12:11).

Pope Francis makes first papal visit to Arab Gulf state

By Delia Gallagher, Sarah El Sirgany and Jim Stenman, CNN, February 4, 2019

The Global Conference for Human Fraternity will begin on February 3, to coincide with the inaugural visit of Pope Francis to the UAE.

The first session, titled Principles of Human Fraternity, will examine the best ways to promote a culture of peace in areas of violence and ideological and ethnic extremism. This will be achieved by looking at ways to confront religious extremism.

The second session, titled Common Responsibility to Achieving Human Fraternity, will explore ways to strengthen bonds of co-operation between East and West to achieve world peace.

And the third session, Human Fraternity: Challenges and Opportunities, will outline ways to direct human conscience and religious ethics to address causes of violence such as selfishness, religious intolerance and hatred.

Delegates from a variety of religions and sects from across the world are expected to attend the conference.

U.S. Catholic officials welcome Catholic-Muslim document signed by pope (Catholic News Service) Feb 8, 2019 <https://cruxnow.com/pope-in-uae/2019/02/08/u-s-catholic-officials-welcome-catholic-muslim-document-signed-by-pope/>

“The declaration signed by Pope Francis and Sheik Ahmad el-Tayeb, the grand imam of al-Azhar, during the pope’s trip to the United Arab Emirates “is a clarion call for robust dialogue that leads to peace,” said the Catholic chairman of the National Catholic-Muslim Dialogue and the chairman of the U.S. bishops’ Committee on Ecumenical and Interreligious Affairs.”

“Pope Francis and Sheik el-Tayeb, a leading religious authority for many Sunni Muslims around the world, signed “A Document on Human Fraternity for World Peace and Living Together” Feb. 4 in Abu Dhabi.”

“We, who believe in God and in the final meeting with him and his judgment, on the basis of our religious and moral responsibility, and through this document, call upon ourselves, upon the leaders of the world as well as the architects of international policy and world economy, to work strenuously to spread the culture of tolerance and of living together in peace,” the document said.

They also urged religious and political leaders to “bring an end to wars, conflicts, environmental decay and the moral and cultural decline that the world is presently experiencing.”

“I have welcomed the opportunity to come here as a believer thirsting for peace, as a brother seeking peace with the brethren. We are here to desire peace, to promote peace, to be instruments of peace.

The logo of this journey depicts a dove with an olive branch. It is an image that recalls the story – present in different religious traditions – of the primordial flood. According to the biblical account, in order to preserve humanity from destruction, God asked Noah to enter the ark along with his family. Today, we too in the name of God, in order to safeguard peace, need to enter together as one family into an ark which can sail the stormy seas of the world: the ark of fraternity.”

What is the true purpose for the Beast calling for “peace”?

Daniel 8:24-25

24 And his power shall be mighty, but not by his own power: and he shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper, and practise, and shall destroy the mighty and the holy people.

25 And through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and by peace shall destroy many: he shall also stand up against the Prince of princes; but he shall be broken without hand.

In Revelation 13 prediction about the wounded head of the Papacy being healed, what was also given to them?

Appeal

Satan is behind the entire papacy, but there are many innocent and sincere Catholics and others who are a part of that system or admire it who are not aware of whose behind it. God is calling them from darkness to His marvelous light of Truth. It is time to sound the alarm and blow the trumpet of truth around the world! Wake up! Wake up! Time is almost over as revealed in God's Word. Why does God reveal truth? Because He loves us and does not want anybody to be lost.
