Prophecy News Alert!

There Is Hope

By Elene Rodgers

Despite the dismal news headlines of record calamities and chaos, we do not need to despair. It is during this time of trouble that the Bible gives one of its greatest prophecies of hope.

Revelation reveals that the everlasting gospel will be proclaimed to all the world and many will make a decision to follow Jesus Christ in sincerity: "And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people, (7) Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters." (Revelation 14:6,7) There will be people all over the globe who will hear Bible truth and despite being persecuted, they will stand for God's truth: "After this I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands; (10) And cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb. (13) And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they? (14) And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. (15) Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them. (16) They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat. (17) For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes." Revelation 7:9,10,13-17

During this time of global crises that the world has never experienced before, there will be a multitude of people who will hear God's word and recognize that He is their Creator and Savior and will submit to Him. They will open their hearts for the Spirit of God to dwell within them enabling them to be faithful and keep all His commandments because of their genuine love for Him. (Revelation 14:12)

So, do not feel that it is too late or that you have gone too far from God. If you feel the Holy Spirit convicting you of sin, do not harden your heart. Confess, repent of your sins and show your fruit of repentance by being obedient to Him. The time is now to make a complete surrender to God.

Instead of being a time of chaos you will experience a time of peace in the midst of the storms of life. Focus on the promises that God has given and be a part of that great multitude of people that no man can number that receives the blessing that God has promised. "And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away. (5) And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful. (6) And he said unto me, It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely. (7) He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son." (Revelation 21:4-7) There is hope!

The Advent Missionary Command Magazine's Mission

There is a world perishing, in need of light. The mission of this magazine is to inspire you to arise and fulfill the commission given us by Jesus to go into all the world teaching and preaching the everlasting gospel. We must be lights for Christ.

The people are to be called to "behold the Lamb of God which taketh away the sins of the world" and accept His gift of salvation. God's law is to be upheld, the Seventh-day Sabbath is to be clearly presented before the people. Babylon is to be revealed and the people are to be called from it. This is the Three Angels' Message of Revelation 14 that unites with the Fourth Angels' message of Revelation 18.

This message must go to all the world. We hope this magazine encourages you to go forward giving this message, seeking to save the lost!

The Power

By Elijah M. Rodgers

Before entering battle at Jericho the soldiers had each been given a command concerning the things in the city. The city and everything within the city was accursed. They were forbidden from taking anything from the accursed city. The command was given, "...keep yourselves from the accursed thing, lest ye make yourselves accursed, when ye take of the accursed thing, and make the camp of Israel a curse, and trouble it." Joshua 6:17,18

Each day for six days they marched around the city once. On the seventh day they marched seven times around the city. After the seventh march the priests sounded with a long blast from rams' horns and the men of war shouted with a great shout and the mighty wall of Jericho fell. A great victory had been won that day.

God used this to show that it was the "Lord of host" that fought their battles. The success of the mission did not depend on the ability nor power of Joshua neither the size of his army but obedience.

The whole congregation of Israel rejoiced at this great victory. They were ready to take on the next city Ai. This city was smaller than Jericho. When Joshua sent spies to Ai they came back with the report, "Let not all the people go up; but let about two or three thousand men go up and smite Ai; and make not all the people to labour thither; for they are but few." Joshua 7:3

According to suggestion of the spies, they only sent out 3,000 soldiers to take Ai "and they fled before the men of Ai." "...The men of Ai smote of them about thirty and six men...". This was an unbearable defeat for the children of Israel. "...The hearts of the people melted, and became as water." "...Joshua rent his clothes" and in utter despair fell to the earth upon his face before the ark of the LORD until the eventide, he and the elders of Israel, and put dust upon their heads." Joshua 7:4,5

"And the LORD said unto Joshua, Get thee up; wherefore liest thou thus upon thy face? Israel hath sinned, and they have also transgressed my covenant which I commanded them: for they have even taken of the accursed thing, and have also stolen, and dissembled also, and they have put it even among their own stuff. Therefore the children of Israel could not stand before their enemies, but turned their backs before their enemies, because they were accursed..." Joshua 7:10-12

Sin was in the camp. Sadly, a soldier took of the accursed thing. The Lord straightly told Joshua, "...neither will I be with you any more, except ye destroy the accursed from among you." "...There is an accursed thing in the midst of thee, O Israel: thou canst not stand before thine enemies, until ye take away the accursed thing from among you." Joshua 7:12,13 They had lost the power that gave them the victory at Jericho. Unless the accursed things were removed from the midst of the camp they would not be able to stand.

Joshua arose from the ground to meet the crisis. The guilty one was searched out and found. His name was Achan. After he had been caught he confessed, "When I saw among the spoils a goodly Babylonish garment, and two hundred shekels of silver, and a wedge of gold of fifty shekels weight, then I coveted them, and took them; and, behold, they are hid in the earth in the midst of my tent, and the silver under it.” Joshua 7:21

Just as the Lord commanded, the children of Israel took Achan and all that he had and stoned him and laid a heap of stones upon him.

With the accursed thing removed “... the LORD said unto Joshua, Fear not, neither be thou dismayed: take all the people of war with thee, and arise, go up to Ai: see, I have given into thy hand the king of Ai, and his people, and his city, and his land”. Joshua 8:1 A great victory was gained, and the city of Ai fell. (Read Joshua chapter 8).

This story has many lessons for the church today. As we enter the final battle of great controversy between Christ and the Devil, his attacks on God’s church will only become more fierce. The Bible says, “And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.” Revelation 12:17

In these times we must realize that our success as a church does not depend on our ability and degrees, nor the number of schools, universities, and hospitals. Just as with Israel when entering the promised land, our success depends on faithful obedience to “every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.” Matthew 4:4

Before His crucifixion Jesus gave His disciples a promise of “power from on high”. He said, “And, behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you: but tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, until ye be endued with power from on high.” Luke 24:49 After His resurrection Jesus gave them the assurance, “But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.” Acts 1:8 This promise of POWER is for the church today.

What Satan fears most is a church filled with power to move the world. His power over many souls would be broken. Therefore in the last days the devil will use his utmost power to destroy the church and its power.

To accomplish this he uses the most successful tactic and tries to destroy us from within. He uses sin and worldliness to blind our eyes and remove our power. This is the reason we must continually be “...sober, and watch unto prayer.” 1 Peter 4:7

Even though the devil strengthens his attacks against God’s people the proclamation will sound throughout the entire earth, “Here is the patience of the saints: here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.” Revelation 14:12

Our world is in a crisis. Immorality is reaching heights surpassing that of Sodom and Gomorrah. Who will stand up for their faith in Jesus in a society that has rejected His salvation? Who will uplift God’s moral law that has been trampled on by countless multitudes? Who will affirm the transforming power of God’s grace that has worked in your life and in the lives of all who yield their all to Christ.

As the Devil intensifies his destruction, the army of the Lord will only oppose it with even greater intensity. An active church is a living church. Our time is now. We can no longer give Satan the advantage; we can no longer sit idly by while the cries of suffering millions ascend before God. We must be the hands and feet of Jesus Christ showing to the world His transforming love.

We repent of our backsliding, our rebellion, and neglects. We plead the blood of Christ to revive our hearts and reform our ways. We plead for the outpouring of the Divine power of the Holy Spirit!

Through faith we must move forward. In times of peace and adversity we must dedicate our lives to serving humanity following the steps of Jesus Christ in self-denial, humility, and compassion.

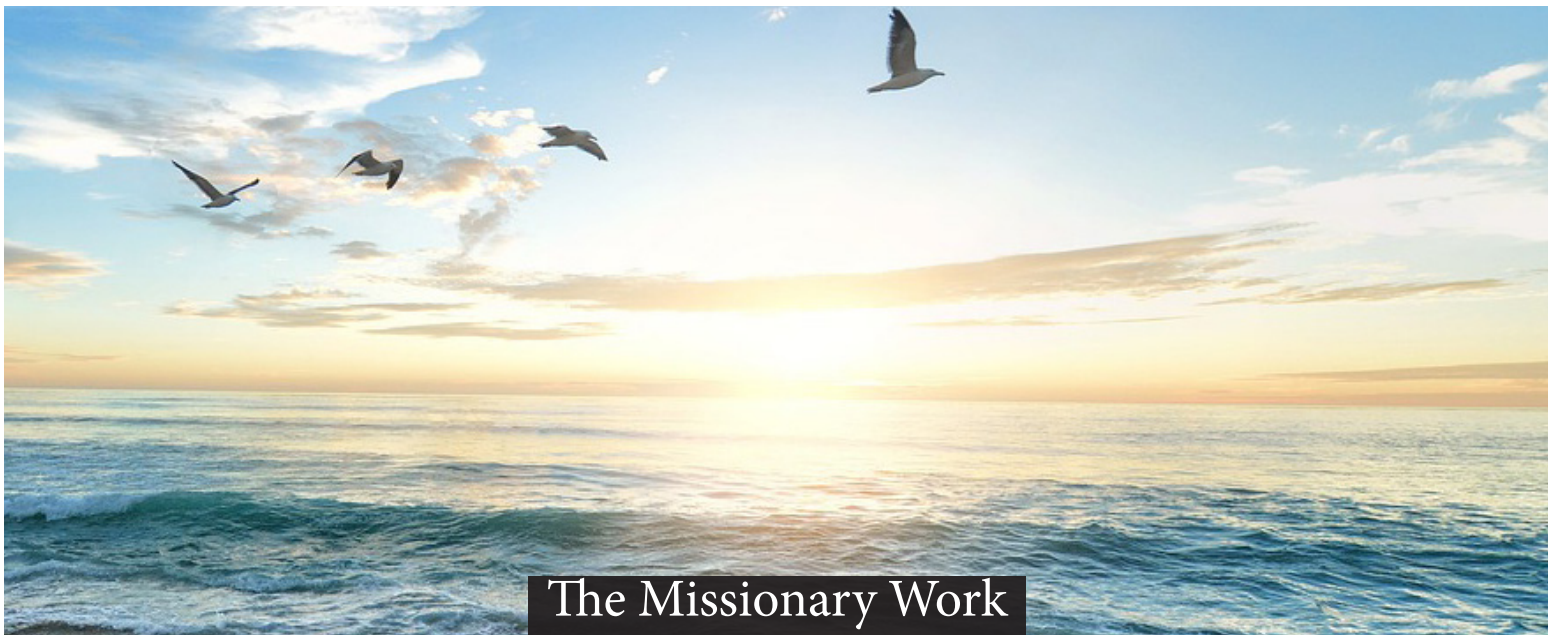

“He would have us united in heart and plans to do the great work committed to us. Brethren should stand shoulder to shoulder, uniting their prayers at the throne of grace, that they may move the arm of the Omnipotent. Heaven and earth will then be closely connected in the work, and there will be joy and gladness in the presence of the angels of God, when the lost sheep is found and restored.” - Fundamentals of Christian Education, p. 210

Our mission will be accomplished through and in the name and the Almighty power of God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Christ and His followers will be victorious!

The Missionary Work

The Majesty of Heaven as a Medical Missionary

By Ellen G. White

"This world has been visited by the Majesty of heaven, the Son of God. "God so loved the world, that He gave His only-begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life." Christ came to this world as the expression of the very heart and mind and nature and character of God. He was the brightness of the Father's glory, the express image of His person. But He laid aside His royal robe and kingly crown, and stepped down from His high command to take the place of a servant. He was rich, but for our sake, that we might have eternal riches, He became poor. He made the world, but so completely did He empty Himself that during His ministry He declared, "Foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay His head."

He came to this world and stood among the beings He had created as a Man of Sorrows and acquainted with grief. "He was wounded for our transgressions, He was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon Him; and with His stripes we are healed." He was tempted in all points like as we are, yet without sin.

A Servant of All

Christ stood at the head of humanity in the garb of humanity. So full of sympathy and love was His attitude that the poorest was not afraid to come to Him. He was kind to all, easily approached by the most lowly. He went from house to house, healing the sick, feeding the hungry, comforting the mourners, soothing the afflicted, speaking peace to the distressed. He took the little children in His arms and blessed them, and spoke words of hope and comfort to the weary mothers. With unfailing tenderness and gentleness He met every form of human woe and affliction. Not for Himself, but for others, did He labor. He was willing to humble Himself, to deny Himself. He did not seek to distinguish Himself. He was the servant of all. It was His meat and drink to be a comfort and a consolation to others, to gladden the sad and heavy-laden ones with whom He daily came in contact.

An Expression of God's Love Christ stands before us as the pattern Man, the great Medical Missionary—an example for all who should come after. His love, pure and holy, blessed all who came within the sphere of its influence. His character was absolutely perfect, free from the slightest stain of sin. He came as an expression of the perfect love of God, not to crush, not to judge and condemn, but to heal every weak, defective character, to save men and women from Satan's power.

He is the Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer of the human race. He gives to all the invitation, "Come unto Me, all ye that labor and are heavy-laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you, and learn of Me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your souls. For My yoke is easy, and My burden is light."

The Missionary Update

Quick Update

This June my parents had their 30th year wedding anniversary. They are thankful to be united in ministry to spread the everlasting gospel of Jesus Christ. The flowers in the picture were arranged by Carlene who grew them on our farm.

The Lord continues to bless the sawmill and expand its capabilities. The clearing we mentioned in the last magazine turned out very nice. We now have the capability to unload tractor trailers of logs. At the moment, we have a lot of eastern red cedar so if you know anyone that needs cedar give us a call at 704-465-9544.

Looking forward, we continue to trust in God's guidance. We are pressing forward with completing some existing projects with the bcmeonline.org and working on completing a new health book. There are many other projects in the works that will be coming up in the near future. Stay tuned!

What, then, is the example that we are to set to the world? We are to do the same work that the great Medical Missionary undertook in our behalf. We are to follow the path of self-sacrifice trodden by Christ. MM 20.3

As I see so many claiming to be medical missionaries, the representation of what Christ was on this earth flashes before me. As I think of how far short the workers today fall when compared with the divine Example, my heart is bowed down with a sorrow that words cannot express. Will men and women ever do a work that bears the features and character of the great Medical Missionary? ... MM 20.4

Is there not woe enough in this sin-stricken, sin-cursed earth to lead us to consecrate ourselves to the work of proclaiming the message that "God so loved the world, that He gave His only-begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life"? This earth has been trodden by the Son of God. He came to bring men light and life, to set them free from the bondage of sin. He is coming again in power and great glory, to receive to Himself those who during this life have followed in His footsteps. MM 20.5

His Name to be Honored

Oh, how I long to see those who claim to be medical missionaries honoring the Great Exemplar, whose life declares what is comprehended in the claim to be a medical missionary! I would that they were learning the Saviour's meekness and lowliness. My heart aches to think that Christ is so greatly disappointed in His followers. They bear a name that their daily life does not give them the right to bear. MM 21.1

We must be sanctified, soul and body, through the truth; then we shall honor the name, medical missionary. Oh, this name means so much! It calls for a representation altogether different from the representation given by many who bear it. Soon these will understand how far they have departed from the principles of heaven, and how greatly they have grieved the heart of Christ."— Medical Ministry page, 19-21.2

Modern Pantheism

“Interfaith dialogue is an organized effort to engage in a discussion of beliefs, along with a sharing of religious and/or cultural-community oriented practices”

Bible Warning against Modern Pantheism

By Elene Rodgers

God gave a warning in the Bible for His people to take heed in order not to be deceived into false worship. Deuteronomy 12:29-32 plainly states, “When the LORD thy God shall cut off the nations from before thee, whither thou goest to possess them, and thou succedest them, and dwellest in their land; (30) Take heed to thyself that thou be not snared by following them, after that they be destroyed from before thee; and that thou enquire not after their gods, saying, How did these nations serve their gods? even so will I do likewise. (31) Thou shalt not do so unto the LORD thy God: for every abomination to the LORD, which he hateth, have they done unto their gods; for even their sons and their daughters they have burnt in the fire to their gods. (32) What thing soever I command you, observe to do it: thou shalt not add thereto, nor diminish from it.”

The story of King Ahaz is given as an example of someone who did not take heed to this warning from God: “But he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, yea, and made his son to pass through the fire, according to the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD cast out from before the children of Israel. And he sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree.” (2 Kings 16:3,4)

The details of the false worship that he instituted are given in 2 Kings 16:10-

The placement of the Altar of Burnt Offering: (Exodus 40:6,29)

King Ahaz displacement of Altar of Burnt Offering and addition of altar from Damascus:

16: "And king Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglathpileser king of Assyria, and saw an altar that was at Damascus: and king Ahaz sent to Urijah the priest the fashion of the altar, and the pattern of it, according to all the workmanship thereof. (11) And Urijah the priest built an altar according to all that king Ahaz had sent from Damascus: so Urijah the priest made it against king Ahaz came from Damascus. (12) And when the king was come from Damascus, the king saw the altar: and the king approached to the altar, and offered thereon (13) And he burnt his burnt offering and his meat offering, and poured his drink offering, and sprinkled the blood of his peace offerings, upon the altar. (14) And he brought also the brasen altar, which was before the LORD, from the forefront of the house, from between the altar and the house of the LORD, and put it on the north side of the altar. (15) And king Ahaz commanded Urijah the priest, saying, Upon the great altar burn the morning burnt offering, and the evening meat offering, and the king's burnt sacrifice, and his meat offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, and their meat offering, and their drink offerings; and sprinkle upon it all the blood of the burnt offering, and all the blood of the sacrifice: and the brasen altar shall be for me to enquire by. (16) Thus did Urijah the priest, according to all that king Ahaz commanded."

King Ahaz's worship moved the Altar of Burnt Offering from its original position and purpose: No longer was it the first article that you saw when you entered into the temple! No longer was it used as the place for the burnt offering or sacrifice for sin but it was only to "enquire by"! The Altar that was at Damascus was added to the temple service and on it were the offerings made.

Eventually, this led to further apostasy and closure of the temple altogether: "And Ahaz gathered together the vessels of the house of God, and cut in pieces the vessels of the house of God, and shut up the doors of the house of the LORD, and he made him altars in every corner of Jerusalem. (25) And in every several city of Judah he made high places to burn incense unto other gods, and provoked to anger the LORD God of his fathers." ( 2 Chronicles 28:24,25)

This false worship permitted a false god while still including the worship of the true God which is a form of pantheism. Pantheism has 2 main definitions: 1) A doctrine that identifies God with the universe or regards the universe as a manifestation of God. 2) A worship that admits or tolerates all gods.

The first definition has been referred as the alpha of apostasy by Ellen White. The second definition of pantheism is the omega of apostasy. "In the book Living Temple there is presented the alpha of deadly heresies. The omega will follow, and will be received by those who are not willing to heed the warning God has given." {1SM 200.1}

This warning given by God applies to us today. There is a movement by Christians to incorporate false worship along with the worship of God known as interfaith dialogue. "Interfaith dialogue is an organized effort to engage in a discussion of beliefs, along with a sharing of religious and/or cultural-community oriented practices, which takes place between people of differing faiths. The goal of such a dialogue is to break down barriers between adherents of differing faiths, and once accomplished purportedly leads to world peace." "... participants in interfaith dialogue must come to the discussion table with an open mind toward the acceptance of so-called multiple truths, as well as an openness with regard to the welcoming of multiple means of worshipping a deity or deities." "Interfaith dialogue denies one crucially important reality, that being, there are incompatible fundamental distinctions between the deeply held beliefs of differing religions throughout the world. Because of this fact, it is impossible for religions to be combined or somehow blended together, without suffering the loss of the vital integrity of the respective faiths." (Down the Path To One World Religion Newsmax by James Hirsen)

The atonement offered only through the blood of Jesus Christ as the offering for sin is the vital belief that is moved out of place in interfaith dialogue. Many false religions may mention the name of Jesus but not worship Him as the Creator and Savior of the world. Moreover, some pagan religions despise the foundational beliefs of Christianity because it refuses to validate immoral behavior that the Scriptures overtly condemns.

Jesus' example of witnessing to those of different faiths, like the woman of Samaria, did not try to learn and incorporate heathen worship in order to minister to her. He spoke the truth in love and it touched her heart. She was fully converted in sincerity and truth.

In pagan worship there are many gods and these false gods are linked together but this is contrasted with the true worship of the Creator God whose first commandment is, "Thou shalt have no other gods before me." As Christians today, if we do not want to be seduced into idolatry, we need to take heed to the warning given from God.

Healthy Living Recipes | Alfalfa Sprouts

Sprouts

One new thing that has interested me was sprouting alfalfa and broccoli. I have thought about it before but decided to go ahead and begin. My mother already would sprout wheat berries to add nutrition for breadmaking, but I also found sprouting alfalfa seeds very exciting especially when I read on the health benefits. In less than a week it grows delicious and very nutritious sprouts. One day my brother Elijah decided to make an alfalfa salad from the alfalfa sprouts and it was very delicious! It also is a great addition to sandwich wraps like adding fresh lettuce. To me the alfalfa sprouts are mild in flavor with a light nutty taste.

How to Sprout Alfalfa Seed

- 1 quart jar
- the ring of the jar lid or rubber band or string to secure cloth over the mouth of the jar
- a small piece of cloth (I prefer a thin white cotton cloth or flour bag, very thin to allow air to enter.)
- kitchen towel or any cloth to keep the sprouts in a dark environment
- strainer
- small glass pan or bowl to tilt the jar in
- 2 Tablespoons Alfalfa Seeds (make sure they are not treated with pesticides or chemicals)
- water

Step 1: In the jar pour 2 tablespoons of alfalfa seeds then fill the jar halfway with water and allow the seeds to soak overnight. Cover the lid with a small thin cloth and secure it in place with a rubber band or ring of the jar lid. Cover the jar with a kitchen towel or any cloth to keep the sprouts in a dark environment.

Step 2: After your seeds have been soaking for about 8 hours, drain out the water with a strainer then pour more water in the jar to rinse the seeds once then drain out the water. Then place the small cloth back over the mouth of the lid and secure in place then tilt the jar in a small glass pan or bowl (anything heavy enough to support the weight of the leaning jar without allowing it to tip over). Do not just place the jar right side up because you want to let the remaining water drain out. Also, do not place it upside down because you want to allow air to flow in. Just tilt the jar. Then cover the jar with a kitchen towel or any cloth to keep the sprouts in a dark environment.

Step 3: Continue to rinse and drain the sprouting seeds twice a day for 4 days covering the jar with a kitchen towel or any cloth to keep the sprouts in a dark environment.

Step 4: On the 5th day remove the kitchen towel or whatever cloth you used to keep the sprouts in a dark environment to expose the sprouts to light so the yellow tops can become green. Still rinse and drain the seeds that day. Now they are ready to eat!

Alfalfa Sprout Salad

2 cups alfalfa sprouts (my brother used both alfalfa and broccoli sprouts)

½ cup tomatoes (diced)

1 avocado (diced)

½ cup olives (sliced)

Juice from 1 lemon (freshly squeezed)

2 Tbsp. olive oil

1 Tbsp. honey

Salt to taste

Mix all of the ingredients together. Enjoy!

Healthful Living

The Amazing Health Benefits of Alfalfa

By Carlene Rodgers

Sprout's are considered "Nature's most living food." It states in Nature's Healing Grasses book by H.E. Kirschner, M.D., "For vim, vigor and vitality, eat more alfalfa sprouts – Nature's most living food." page 32 "Even though fruit, grain, and vegetables are living foods in their natural condition, in sprouts life is present with all of its vigor. This means that sprouts are rich in substances that are of great biological value necessary for our bodies, such as vitamins and enzymes." Encyclopedia of Foods and their Healing Power volume 1, page 86

When the alfalfa seed begins to sprout it makes it easy to digest and is a tasty way to get the many nutrients from it. "Among the dozen or more popular alfalfa products now available at most health food stores throughout the country, none are more palatable or healthgiving than Alfalfa Sprouts." Nature's Healing Grasses by H.E. Kirschner, M.D. page 34 "... the increasing consumption of alfalfa sprouts is due to their high content of saponins and other useful bioactive compounds present in the germinated seeds. Such compounds are known to possess antioxidant activity, antiviral activity, immune stimulant activity, and antidiabetic activity, among other functions in both humans and animals."

"Alfalfa sprouts are also rich in vitamins such as vitamin B complex, vitamins C and E. Moreover, a diverse number of phe-nolic compounds (gallic and caffeic acids), flavonoids (apigenin, kaempferol, myricetin, naringin quercetin, rutin, daidzein, and genistein) can be found in a substantial amount in alfalfa sprouts. These compounds are responsible for antidiabetic, anti-obesity, antioxidant, as well as many other biological activities." ### Alfalfa Sprouts Improve Insulin Function in Diabetic Patients

"The high concentration of Mn [a constituent of manganese superoxidedismutase] in alfalfa sprouts can aid in stimulating insulin secretion and improve insulin function in diabetic patients." Edible Plant Sprouts: Health Benefits, Trends, and Opportunities for Novel Exploration - PMC

Alfalfa for Oral Health

"Alfalfa sprouts have a sweetening effect on the breath, and leave a clean, fresh taste in the mouth. They also give warmth to the stomach, increase peristaltic action of the bowels, and stimulate the lagging appetite.

Dr. Sherman Davies of the University of Indiana has pointed out that alfalfa is especially rich in iron, calcium and phosphorus, which are all-important in keeping the teeth fine and strong. He declares: 'The use of alfalfa as food for humans would be a great boon, and those who produce it will be doing the world a vast service in saving the teeth of all ages.' On this point, Dr. Edward Mellenby of Sheffield, England, reports that 'Alfalfa is essential to rebuild decayed teeth – not just stop the decay.'" Nature's Healing Grasses by H.E. Kirschner, M.D. Page 35

So why not begin to grow some alfalfa sprouts? You may not be a gardener, but this is something great to start growing simply in a jar. It grows fast, can be grown anytime of year, is delicious and very nutritious.

3 Books In The Judgment

By Cary Rodgers

We are living in the MOST solemn times in earth's history. According to the rapid fulfillment of Bible prophecy there is no doubt that we are the last generation on this planet. Jesus summarizes His core mission of the everlasting gospel and the Holy Ghost in John 16:8-11: "And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment: 9 Of sin, because they believe not on me; 10 Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more; 11 Of judgment, because the prince of this world is judged."

The first angel's message of Revelation 14:7 says, "the hour of his judgment is come." This is an urgent message that must be given to the world. Based on the events of Bible prophecy we are living at the closing "hour" of the investigative judgment.

The prophet Daniel spoke of this time of the investigative judgment: "...the judgment was set, and the books were opened." (Daniel 7:10) The prophet John describing the same scene, adds: "Another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which were written in the books, according to their works." Revelation 20:12. Ellen White says in the Great Controversy page 480, "The books of record in heaven, in which the names and the deeds of men are registered, are to determine the decisions of the judgment." There are three books in the courts of heaven that are used during the investigative judgment: the Book of Life, the Book of Remembrance, and the Record Book of unconfessed Sins.

The Book of Life contains all the names of the faithful servants of God who have overcome the world and sin through the power of the blood of the Lamb, Jesus Christ. Jesus referred to the Book of Life when he spoke to the seventy workers in Luke 10:20 which says, "Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven." The book of Revelation also refers to the book of life in Revelation 21:27 and Revelation 20:15. Revelation 21:27 says, "And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life." "And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire," according to Revelation 20:15. In Philippians 4:3, Paul speaks of his faithful fellow workers, "whose names are in the Book of Life." Also in Daniel 12:1 it says, "And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book [Book of Life]."

The Book of Life is the ultimate book in which your name must be recorded in order to be saved in the Kingdom of God. Those who are in sin and rebellion names are not written in the Book of Life. They are forever lost.

The Book of Remembrance is another book used in the investigative judgment. This book records all the good deeds of the righteous and faithful people of God. This is another in which you want your name written. Malachi 3:16 says, "Then they that feared the LORD spake often one to another: and the LORD hearkened, and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the LORD, and that thought upon his name." Nehemiah 13:14 reveal what is in the book of remembrance, "Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and wipe not out my good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for the offices thereof."

"In the book of God's remembrance every deed of righteousness is immortalized. There every temptation resisted, every evil overcome, every word of tender pity expressed, is faithfully chronicled. And every act of sacrifice, every suffering and sorrow endured for Christ's sake, is recorded. Says the psalmist: 'Thou tellest my wanderings: put Thou my tears into Thy bottle: are they not in Thy book?' Psalm 56:8." - Ellen White, Great Controversy p. 481

The Record Book of unconfessed Sins is a book that you do not want your name written in. It is a record of all the deeds of the people with unconfessed sins. All those whose name are written in the Recorded Book of Sins will be lost and destroyed in the lake of fire. Ecclesiastes 12:14 says, "For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good [book of remembrance], or whether it be evil [Record of sins]." In addition, Matthew 12:36 makes it clear, "But I say unto you, That every idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment."

"Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every man have praise of God." 1 Corinthians 4:5. The hidden things of the wicked are recorded and will be brought to light. Unconfessed sins will not be ignored or forgotten in the courts of Heaven. The wicked will not be able to hide anything from God because "he knoweth the secrets of the heart," Psalms 44:21. In addition Romans 2:16 says, "In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ according to my gospel."

God records the wicked's rebellious behavior and measures them with His standard of righteousness. He will "measure their former work" of iniquity (Isaiah 65:7).

In summary, the 3 books in the Investigative Judgment are the Book of Life, the Book of Remembrance, and the Record of Sins. "Every man's work passes in review before God and is registered for faithfulness or unfaithfulness. Opposite each name in the books of heaven is entered with terrible exactness every wrong word, every selfish act, every unfulfilled duty, and every secret sin, with every artful dissembling. Heaven-sent warnings or reproofs neglected, wasted moments, unimproved opportunities, the influence exerted for good or for evil, with its far-reaching results, all are chronicled by the recording angel." Great Controversy p. 482

"As the books of record are opened in the judgment, the lives of all who have believed on Jesus come in review before God. Beginning with those who first lived upon the earth, our Advocate presents the cases of each successive generation, and closes with the living. Every name is mentioned, every case closely investigated. Names are accepted, names rejected. When any have sins remaining upon the books of record, unrepented of and unforgiven, their names will be blotted out of the book of life, and the record of their good deeds will be erased from the book of God's remembrance. The Lord declared to Moses: 'Whosoever hath sinned against Me, him will I blot out of My book.' Exodus 32:33. And says the prophet Ezekiel: 'When the righteous turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, . . . all his righteousness that he hath done shall not be mentioned.' Ezekiel 18:24." Great Controversy p. 483

What else will be closely scrutinized and examined during the investigative judgment? "In the judgment the use made of every talent will be scrutinized. How have we employed the capital lent us of Heaven? Will the Lord at His coming receive His own with usury? Have we improved the powers entrusted us, in hand and heart and brain, to the glory of God and the blessing of the world? How have we used our time, our pen, our voice, our money, our influence? What have we done for Christ, in the person of the poor, the afflicted, the orphan, or the widow? God has made us the depositaries of His holy word; what have we done with the light and truth given us to make men wise unto salvation? No value is attached to a mere profession of faith in Christ; only the love which is shown by works is counted genuine. Yet it is love alone which in the sight of Heaven makes any act of value. Whatever is done from love, however small it may appear in the estimation of men, is accepted and rewarded of God." Great Controversy p. 487

"The hidden selfishness of men stands revealed in the books of heaven. There is the record of unfulfilled duties to their fellow men, of forgetfulness of the Saviour's claims. There they will see how often were given to Satan the time, thought, and strength that belonged to Christ. Sad is the record which angels bear to heaven. Intelligent beings, professed followers of Christ, are absorbed in the acquirement of worldly possessions or the enjoyment of earthly pleasures. Money, time, and strength are sacrificed for display and self-indulgence; but few are the moments devoted to prayer, to the searching of the Scriptures, to humiliation of soul and confession of sin." Great Controversy p. 487

We cannot allow Satan to distract us away from God's truth. The work of Christ as our High Priest, the sanctuary message and investigative judgment should be deeply studied and understood by the faithful. Daily study, prayer, forsaking sin, and doing the will of God will keep you faithful as you abide in Christ.

We must closely examine ourselves in relation to the Bible and the character of Jesus Christ. This is a serious work of reflection that we all must do individually. Is my life totally hidden in Christ? Have

I confessed and forsaken ALL sin and worldliness out of my life? Have I created an atmosphere of truth for me and my family? Have I placed ALL my time, talents, and money in the hands of Jesus? Do my actions reveal that I truly believe that Jesus' coming is extremely soon?

Endure, don't be allured away from the truth. What will you be doing when God pronounces your judgment in the Heavenly court room. This is not the time to be allured and distracted by the entertainment and amusements of this world. We must stay firm on the platform of truth. Remember we are on the battleground, not a playground. We must fight for TRUTH and there will be great resistance, but we must remain faithful. DO NOT look to others as your standard in this fight of faith. Remember, the great number of professed Christians will try to allure you on the "Carnival" cruise ship full of amusements and pleasures that please the flesh. Stay on the battleship of truth. Amen....

We are living at the end of the judgment. Are you ready? Are you ready? You must be ready NOW. You do not know the day in which your name will go before the judgment seat of God, based on the rapid fulfillment of Bible prophecy that day could be any day now.

"Thus Saith the Lord"

The Authority of the Bible

By Elijah M. Rodgers

It's not a fiction nor a novel book. It is neither just an ordinary story book. It is a book that has living power. It is a book for which thousands of people have been imprisoned, beheaded, burned at the stake, their possessions destroyed, all because they just owned it. Its translators were hunted like deer, and many killed. But in vain did its adversaries seek to destroy it. After centuries of battle, it has stood like a mighty conqueror still preaching its mighty message that offers life, peace, and salvation to the world. This book is the Bible.

What is the purpose of the Bible?

The Bible says in 2 Timothy 3:16,17, "All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: 17 That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works." God has given the Holy Scriptures to reveal the way of life and salvation, to be our guide in doctrine and truth. It is here in the Holy Scriptures that the God of the universe communicates to us His will and purpose for us.

How was the Bible written?

The Bible says in 2 Peter 1:21, "For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost." Also 2 Samuel 23:2 says, "The Spirit of the LORD spake by me, and his word was in my tongue." God spake His word through men who were filled with the Holy Spirit. These "spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost." Every portion of the scriptures was written under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, therefore is the Holy Scriptures, the Word of God.

As an evidence of its Divine inspiration, the Bible was written in a period of about 1,500 years by over forty different people. Though many never saw each other, their message was the same - prophecy lined up with prophecy, story with story. It was all unified by the Almighty mind of God.

What is the power of the words of God?

Isaiah 55:11 says, "So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it." As God is true, faithful, and powerful, the words that He speaks are true, faithful, and powerful. What He speaks will not return void; His will will be accomplished.

The Holy Spirit is the One that makes this book a living book, full of power to transform lives into the revealed will of God. There is no other book like it in the world.

What is the power of the Bible?

1- Power to Change lives

The Bible reveals the way, the truth, and the life. Psalms 119:9 says, "Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? by taking heed thereto according to thy word." Jesus says in John 17:17 "Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth." In James 1:21,22 we are instructed to "...lay apart all filthiness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the engrafted word, which is able to save your souls. But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves."

It is in the Bible that we read that "Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God..." to offer to the world the gift of salvation and eternal life. (1 Peter 3:18) Here we are called to, behold the Lamb of God that takes away the sins of the World, and come to Him. Here in the Bible we are told to "Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out..." which is not blotted out by a penance nor through a priest, but by the humble prayer of the repentant sinner. (Acts 3:19) Here in the Bible we have the promise, "If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." 1 John 1:9. Here it is revealed that we must be found "not having mine own righteousness," "but the righteousness which is of God by faith" of which we receive only through Jesus Christ.

Without the Bible we would not understand the great gift of salvation that God offers us. No other book can change one's life who has been chained to addictive habits, to become a new man fulfilling the will of God, and being a blessing to others. But in order to have this change, we must take heed to its words.

2 - Bible Reveals like a Sword

Hebrews 4:12 says, "...the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discernor of the thoughts and intents of the heart." When a sinner reads the Bible, its words with the power of the Holy Spirit, goes to the heart of the reader. As he reads there is revealed to him things in his life that must be changed.

The Purpose of Power

By Nehemiah Rodgers

If you have a battery that is out of power it will not give power. If you have a phone and it is out of battery you need to plug it up, but if you do not plug up to the power it is dead! If something has no power, it is useless. The same is for those that reject God. They have no power. They are dead and will not be saved.

What is the power?

Romans 1:16 "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek."

Why do we need the power?

Jude 1:24 "Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy," Philippians 2:13 "For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure."

What is the condition of people that profess they know God but have no power?

Titus 1:16 "They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate."

2 Timothy 3:1-5 "This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come. (2) For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, (3) Without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good, (4) Traitors, heady, highminded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God; (5) Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away."

How do we get the power?

Matthew 7:7 "Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you:"

The purpose of the power is for us to be saved. God works in us, giving us the power to live holy lives. We have His power when we obey Him.

The Missionary Story

God's Word

By Carlene Rodgers

A lot has happened since the last AMC magazine. We like to join mission projects that spread God's Word. In April, we attended a mission trip in Michigan to give out the Great Controversy door to door in Michigan. We were sent to various communities near the Detroit area of Michigan and gave out thousands of books.

My grandparents live in Michigan and wanted to have the Great Controversy books distributed near their local area as well. My grandmother made the arrangements to get the books and we, along with some members of their church, and the Pastor with his family went to several areas as my grandfather guided us around to places to share the Great Controversy books along with our Abundant health brochure which gives the 10 laws of health, A.N.E.W. S.T.A.R.T.T.

Once a month in Charlotte, North Carolina we attend an evangelism event at a major park in that city. In August, my brothers and I played instrumental hymns at the park followed by the message of the Sabbath and Mark of the Beast. There were people from the park who stopped in to listen to the message and Bible tracts were handed out.

This summer at the Flea Market we held some health classes at the flea market called Abundant Life and Health Class. The classes were very brief; we gave a recipe of the day and the natural remedy tip of the day. We got its name from John 10:10 which says, "The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly." We handed out class notes which covered what we talked about in the class with the recipe of the day. Also, we had a door prize in which people filled out a survey on what they were interested in and at the end of the short class we drew for the door prize. From the survey we had many Bible study requests which led to the development of a free online Bible study course. It is our 10 correspondent lessons online with 10 quizzes in which participants get an immediate response on which questions were answered correctly and receive a certificate of completion at the end. This online Bible study course is on our website BCMEonline.org.

The youth Bible and Health Summer Camp was a blessing. This year was the first year my younger brother, Nehemiah, participated as a teacher for summer camp. Nehemiah taught the children about the sanctuary. We sang songs every morning. They were taught the books of the Bible, the Ten Commandments, math, Creation, and the wonderfully body parts that God made like the check valve in the heart and about the muscles. Plant-based meals were served and they enjoyed making fruit smoothies. We also had outdoor activities for exercise. The children earned camp bucks for doing their work and answering questions. At our summer camp was someone who attended the Bible and Health Summer Camp when she was 8 years old then she came this year as a 14 year old volunteer. There was also another person who came years ago when he was younger. This year he brought many of his family members and friends with him including his grandmother who came everyday as support with many of her grandchildren. We were originally going to have the camp for one week but it was requested that we do it another week so we did it two weeks. It was a blessing and God's Word was planted in many hearts.

He is pricked and convicted that there must be a change in his life. The purpose of this sword is to cut spiritually, and change the heart into the will of God which gives eternal life.

3 - The Bible is the Testimony of Jesus

Jesus says in John 5:39, "Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me." The Bible witnesses of Jesus and His ministry, that He is the Messiah, the Savior of the world.

Why did God give us the Bible?

Romans 15:4 says, "For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope." The things that were written were given for our comfort and hope.

How true is the Bible?

There are many things that we can hold our faith in the truthfulness of the Bible. Hebrews 6:18 says, "That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us:" "Every word of God is pure: he is a shield unto them that put their trust in him." Proverbs 30:5 Psalms 119:140 says, "Thy word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it." "Thy testimonies that thou hast commanded are righteous and very faithful." Psalms 119:138

truthfulness of the Bible?

Peter says in 2 Peter 1:19, "We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day star arise in your hearts:" To John Jesus commanded him to "Write the things which thou hast seen, and the things which are, and the things which shall be hereafter;" Revelation 1:19

The greatest evidence of the truth and authority of the Bible is prophecy. Bible prophecy reveals events and things before they even happen with particular exactness!

Amazing examples of this are found all throughout the Bible. From the prophecy of king Cyrus by name in Isaiah chapter 44 and 45 to over 125 prophecies in the Old Testament concerning Jesus Christ. All the prophecies that were given in the Old Testament concerning the earthly ministry of Jesus have been exactly fulfilled. From the place of His birth (Micah 5:2; Matthew 2:12), the manner of His birth (Isaiah 7:14; Luke 1:26,27,30,31,34,35,37), His ministry (Isaiah 61:1-3; Isaiah 35:5,6; Luke 7:22; Matthew 15:29-31; Matthew 9:27-30; John 9:1,6-9,20,32; John 5:2-9), His death for our sins (Isaiah 53:3-5,8,9,12, John 19:4,5,15-17; Psalms 34:20; Numbers 9:12; John 19:31-37 Zachariah 12:10), and His resurrection (Psalms 16:10; Matthew 20:18,19; Luke 24:1-7).

The Bible has proven to be inspired by God time and time again. It never fails. The prophecies that the Bible gave were declared by an Omnipotent and Almighty God (Isaiah 46:9,10).

If we want to know the way, what are we commanded to do?

2 Timothy 2:15 says, "Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." We are commanded to study and search the scriptures. The Bible is our road map that leads us to everlasting life. But if we want to know that way, we must read it. But we cannot just read it we must as Jesus says, "...Yea rather, blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it." Luke 11:28 (Read also James 1:21,22; Revelation 22:7; Matthew 15:8,9)

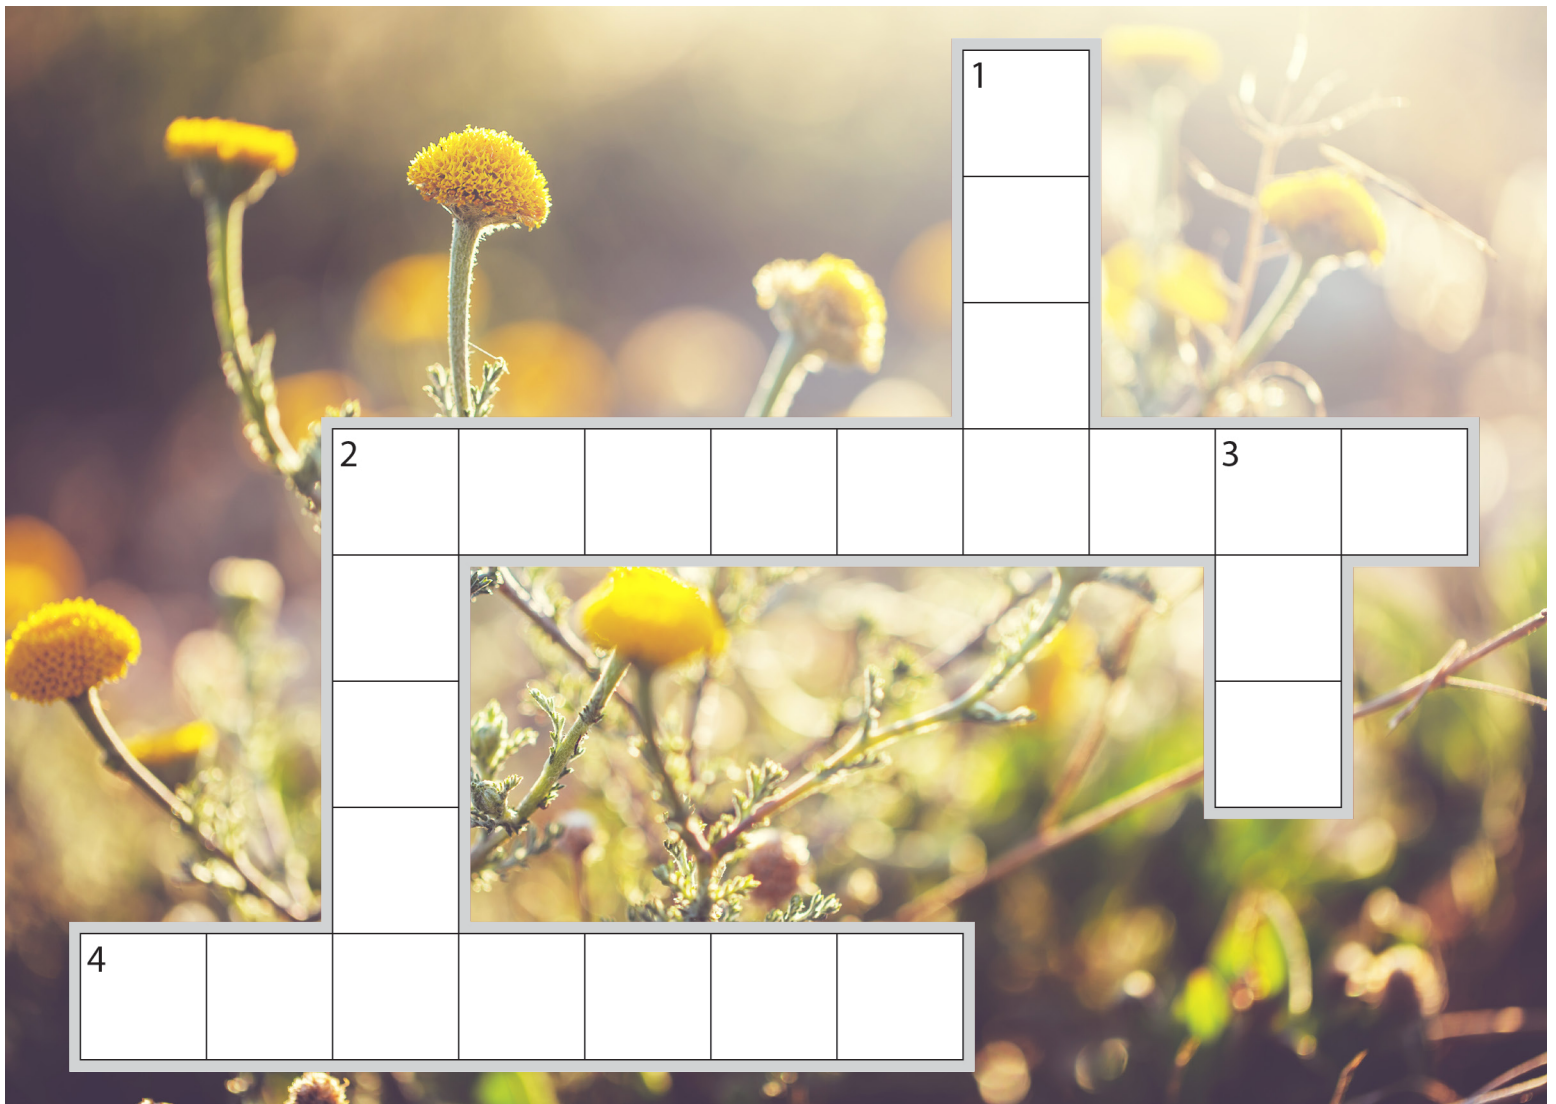

It all comes down to the question that in these last days will we follow the teaching of the Bible as it says or will we substitute it with the ideas of men? The Bible has gone through centuries of persecution, but God has kept His word. The persecutions only furthered the advance of the truth. Now, in many places, the Bible is in the reach of nearly all. But do we read it?

Jesus told John in Revelation 21:5, "... Write: for these words are true and faithful." We today need to turn back to the pure and faithful word of God, the Bible, and follow it.
